FRANCE TO INTERVENE

SHE OFFERS HER MEDIATION TO PREVENT WAR.

But if Conflict Comes She Will Side With Spain Because of Her Financial Interests.

NEW YORK, April 1.—At 6:30 to-night a cable message from the French Ambassador at Washington, containing a communication to McKinley, began coming over the wires. Hardly had this message in cipher begun when there was a message from the Spanish government at Madrid started to Senor Bernabe, the Spanish Minister at Washington. For hours these two messages ran.

From inside information received in this city it is known without doubt that the message from France to McKinley means that France has decided to intervene, and, if possible, prevent a war between the United States and Spain. It was said further that in case of war the French government would take sides with Spain against this country. It is said to have also stated that France would brook no war which would imperil the large debt due from Spain to the citizens of France. Spain's debt to the Rothschilds is enormous.

The message from Spain to Senor Bernabe notified him of the action of France and also gave him instructions by which he will act for the next few hours during the impending crisis.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—It is reported tonight that a long cipher cable has been received by Ambassador Cambon from Paris. It is understood to be a communication from the French government asking whether there are any good offices it can exert in behalf of the maintenance of peace between the United States and Spain. It is said to be far from menacing in its tone and to be, in fact, couched in the most friendly language, admitting the provocation of the United States, and yet urging that a resort to war be avoided if possible. Cambon refused to admit the receipt of such a message and Judge Day denied that it had been communicated to the State Department. It could not be delivered before tomorrow, as it was in cipher and would take time for translation.

JUDGE HAWKINS.

Judge Hawkins once had to sentence an old swindler, and gave him seven years. The man in the dock squirmed and whined. "Oh, my lord, I'll never live half that time." Hawkins took another look at him, and answered: "I don't think it is at all desirable that you should."

The formality of asking a newly convicted prisoner if he has anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him brought another retort from the judge. A prisoner in these circumstances usually says nothing, or curses at large in his rage, but one of them struck a theatrical posture, and with his right hand in the air shouted: "May the Almighty strike me dead if I don't speak the truth. I am innocent of this crime." Justice Hawkins said nothing for a minute, when, after glancing at the clock, he fulminated in his most impressive voice: "Since the Almighty has not thought fit to intervene, I will now proceed to pass sentence."—Argonaut.

MAKES ANTS INTOXICATED.

Sir John Lubbock has gone to the ant again, and if he keeps up his visits and others imitate him that interesting insect will become useless for Sunday school purposes. Sir John succeeded in getting fifty ants hopelessly drunk, and then placed them outside an ant hill. The sober ants came out, picked up their friends and put them to bed to sleep off the effects of Sir John's liquor; the strangers, however, they sternly rolled over into the little ditch.

"A word to the wise is sufficient," and a word from the wise would be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy, and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by Benson, Smith &amp; Co., wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands. All druggists and dealers.

A NOVEL LIGHTHOUSE.

NEW YORK, April 1.—The new lighthouse being constructed at Honolulu is a novel one, in that the light is so powerful that the keeper can sight a ship's cargo five miles off, and invariably telephones to the Criterion Saloon that such and such a ship is off port with a large cargo of Rainier Beer in her hold.

A woman's face is invariably a mask of her fancy; like a court masker, she can only be recognized by her mouth.
